

Founded in 1868, Kitaoka Honten is a seventh generation, family brewery that has been carrying on traditional sake brewing for more than 150 years.

Fast forward to the year 2000, Kitaoka Honten began working with farmers across Japan to source fruit for a brand new style of sake. We focus on reducing food waste by taking in unsold produce that would have otherwise gone unused.

This new sake maintains the freshness and juiciness of the fruit. Most of our fruit is washed, peeled, seeded and grated or diced by hand. Then, using Joule heating sterilization, we maintain the flavor and color of the fruit.

Now, we bring SHEZEN to the world. SHEZEN takes inspiration from Shizen, the Japanese word for nature. Our family brewery sits in the city of Yoshino in Nara prefecture, a diverse mountainous area and UNESCO World Heritage Site famous for our countless temples, pilgrimage sites and remarkable nature – a place where possibilities seem endless!
